2 hours. 4 questions. 6 women. IF:Table is a simple way to cut through the small talk and start building the relationships God wants us to have. Join 5 other women at one of our hostesses' homes and enjoy a meal together while discussing 4 faith-based questions. IF:Table creates a regular rhythm of connecting with a group of women and gives God the opportunity to display His love to other women through you. Sign up or get more information in the foyer today! ## Hebrews 7:1-10 ESV

<sup>1</sup> For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him,<sup>2</sup> and to him Abraham apportioned a tenth part of everything. He is first, by translation of his name, king of righteousness, and then he is also king of Salem, that is, king of peace.<sup>3</sup> He is without father or mother or genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but resembling the Son of God he continues a priest forever.

<sup>4</sup> See how great this man was to whom Abraham the patriarch gave a tenth of the spoils!

<sup>5</sup> And those descendants of Levi who receive the priestly office have a commandment in the law to take tithes from the people, that is, from their brothers, though these also are descended from Abraham. <sup>6</sup> But this man who does not have his descent from them received tithes from Abraham and blessed him who had the promises. <sup>7</sup> It is beyond dispute that the inferior is blessed by the superior. <sup>8</sup> In the one case tithes are received by mortal men, but in the other case, by one of whom it is testified that he lives. <sup>9</sup> One might even say that Levi himself, who receives tithes, paid tithes through Abraham,<sup>10</sup> for he was still in the loins of his ancestor when Melchizedek met him.

Talk it over

Over the summer we'd encourage you to find another person and try using the "Swedish Method" of Bible study to discuss the passage from Sunday's sermon. It has three parts:

- Light bulb: What did you notice from the passage? What stood out to you while reading or listening to it?
- Question mark: What questions do you have from the passage? Was there anything you didn't understand? Was there something you'd like to ask the writer or the Lord from the passage?
- Arrow: Where can we take what was said and apply it to our life?
