Next week's sermon: Hebrews 7:11-28

Romans 1:21-27 ESV

²¹ For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened. ²² Claiming to be wise, they became fools, ²³ and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man and birds and animals and creeping things.

²⁴ Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves, ²⁵ because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen.

²⁶ For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature; ²⁷ and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

Talk it over

Over the summer we'd encourage you to find another person and try using the "Swedish Method" of Bible study to discuss the passage from Sunday's sermon. It has three parts:

- Light bulb: What did you notice from the passage? What stood out to you while reading or listening to it?
- Question mark: What questions do you have from the passage? Was there anything you didn't understand? Was there something you'd like to ask the writer or the Lord from the passage?
- Arrow: Where can we take what was said and apply it to our life?
