Next week's sermon: Luke 24:13-35

Matthew 5:13-20 ESV

¹³ “You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people’s feet.

¹⁴ “You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. ¹⁵ Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. ¹⁶ In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.

¹⁷ “Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. ¹⁸ For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished. ¹⁹ Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰ For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.”

¹² “So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.”

- What was one thing you heard in this week’s sermon that has stuck with/challenged you?
- Treasuring God: How does our love for God impact how we are able to be “salt and light” to the world?
- Being Transformed: How has my view of the Bible changed in the last two weeks through this series?
- Loving Others: How does studying and meditating on Scripture through the lens of the Golden Rule (Matt. 7:12) change the way we view/treat others? What would be an example of this from your life?
- Pursuing Unity: What could we do practically to support one another in prioritizing Bible study and meditation as we meet regularly?
